The Best Part of my Job

The best part of my job is being able to earn a lot of money or get a lot of sponsorship sounds very materialistic but it is true. As a celebrity, I have a lot of job opportunities. A lot of companies will invite me to endorse their products, invite me to attend their conference, or ask me to be a guest on their shows, As I can earn a lot of money, I can earn a lot of appearance rate too.

The biggest challenge I have ever faced in my job

Being a celebrity is really fun. I can try a lot of new things that have never seen. But also my job can be very difficult. Being a celebrity means that a lot of people know me or I will show up on television often, so I need to be careful about my every movement or every action. If I accidentally say some bad words, I might get a lot discussion on the internet, so I need to be very sincere and patient all the time.

My most memorable moment

I must say the most memorable day was on 22 June,2015. That day was my birthday so I can remember clearly. That day, a lot of fans sent Happy Birthday cards or letters to my office, about 1000 letters, making me feel very warm.

Encouraging words

Being a secondary school student, you will feel confused sometimes, I think the reasons are because you are confused of your future, I need to tell you, the road maybe dark sometimes, but you have to find the light by yourself.
