

Topic: School Magazine Article

How satisfying it is to be a Hotel Manager

I am thankful to be given this opportunity to share my experience as being a hotel manager with my mother school. Let me tell you how it is to be a hotel manager. Since I had chosen to be a hotel manager, my life have been busy but also full of joy. Everyday, I have to organize different kinds of events for different clients who wants to held an even at our hotel. I also have to check up with my colleagues to see if they are doing their jobs well and if there's any problems.

To be a hotel manager like me, you have to prepare yourself well. You must work at a local hotel during a student for at least one semester. It is important to earn experience to understand the basics operation of a hotel. You should also enroll in a hospitality management degree program to gain necessary education and experience.

When I was still learning during the program, my tutor once told us that the following below are the main qualities you must have when you work in a hotel; you have to be a good team player. You are not running a hotel alone, but with a team. And of course, the passion of serving others. That's the key towards the door of happiness of a hotel.

I look back at what my tutor said and I can tell you she is tight. I once organize a wedding anniversary of a pair of old couple. They were most generous and kind. My team had put all our heart to prepare this event and our hard work played off. The old couple was grateful for our preparation and even invited us to have dessert with them. It was rewarding for me to see that my work can give happiness to people.

Here's a few advice for the ones who wants to work in a hotel. You must be flexible as the job have long shifts through the day. You also have to be fluent in Chinese and English. Many clients are from all over the world. Multitasking is a must-have quality. Finally, to be dedicated to the job.

Once again, this job makes me feel satisfied, as it is my dream job. No matter what you do, remember to be dedicate on what you do. Good luck!